I believe that church history will be very kind to Dallas Willard. He lived his life as a rare composite of rigorous academic, passionate Bible expositor and friend of God. Those who knew him well marveled at his mind but loved him because of his firsthand knowledge of God and his desire for others to share his experiences of life in the kingdom.

More than ten years ago, I was working for a publisher on a project to present an overview of what was, at the time, Dallas's trilogy: In Search of Guidance (later released as Hearing God), The Spirit of the Disciplines and The Divine Conspiracy. The idea was that Dallas would be filmed teaching the core concept of each book: (1) the possibility of living in a conversational relationship with God; (2) how students of Jesus can interact with the grace and Spirit of God; and (3) eternal living starts here and now through confidence in Jesus. After most of the research had been completed for the project, the trilogy became a gospel quartet with the release of Renovation of the Heart. Vision for the project shifted to the fourth book, and the overview project was put on hold—until now.

The book in your hands has been created from the transcript of a conference held February 21-23, 2013, in Santa Barbara, California. The conference was born out of conversations between Dallas and John Ortberg, senior pastor at Menlo Park Presbyterian Church in Menlo Park, California, and a gifted author and speaker.

The primary passion for the conference was to provide an overview of Dallas's writings and ministry—his most impassioned ideas. The conference was built around the theme “Knowing Christ Today” and as a way to present the golden thread that runs through all of his primary writing: that it is possible to know the Trinity intimately and to step into their glorious kingdom.

The talks at the conference by Dallas and John have been edited just a bit to make the transition to create the book Living in Christ’s Presence: Final Words on Heaven and the Kingdom of God, but they retain the conversational feel of a conference. At the start of each chapter of the book is one of the prayers that was prayed during the conference. Each chapter ends with a conversation about the content with further content being drawn out with questions from John to Dallas and from the audience. The DVD of the talks is the focal point of this study guide.

The conference was sponsored by the Martin Institute for Christianity and Culture and the Dallas Willard Center for Christian Formation (MIDWC), where I serve as executive director. The MIDWC exists because of the vision and generosity of Eff and Patty Martin. I believe that the DVD and study guide will capture and preserve the nature of the conference—and more importantly, Dallas’s thoughts—in a way that will be helpful to you.
For Starters

Thanks for choosing this InterVarsity Press small-group video curriculum. Please take a couple of minutes to read this helpful information before you begin. It should answer most questions you may have.

What’s on the video?
The accompanying video features the following components:
• Seven teaching sessions with either Dallas Willard or John Ortberg
• Five conversations between Dallas and John
• One question-and-answer sessions with John and the audience
• Previews of other products your small group might want to consider sometime in the future

What other materials are needed for a successful small group?
• Television monitor
• Video player (stand, extension cord and so on)
• Watch or clock for monitoring time
• Leader’s guide
• Bible—Old and New Testament (one per group member)
• Notepad and pen or pencil for everyone

What else do I need to know?
• This curriculum can work equally well in church and home groups. Each of the first six sessions can be experienced in approximately 120 minutes. The seventh session runs less than sixty minutes. In more formal, time-sensitive church settings, leaders will likely need to follow the time frames provided in the session outline closely to finish all the content. In less formal home settings, leaders can be more flexible. In either case, remember these are suggested time frames that can be adjusted as you see fit.
• It is likely that you will want to take thirteen sessions instead of seven to complete these materials. If you choose to do this, we suggest taking two sessions to complete each of the twelve chapters, devoting one session to the lecture by either Dallas or John and a second session for the conversation or question-and-answer time that follows the lecture. The last session, chapter 7 (which would be the thirteenth session in this format) requires only one hour, so it does not need to be divided.
• Feel free to adapt each session to your particular group. Reword or add questions if you wish. If you sense a certain question is too inflammatory for your group or reaches beyond your comfort zone, simply omit it or at least recognize that not everyone needs to answer every question. Above all, approach these sessions with an expectant spirit that God will stretch the heart and mind of each participant.
• For further insights, please read and recommend to your group Dallas Willard and John Ortberg’s Living in Christ’s Presence: Final Words on Heaven and the Kingdom of God, the book on which this curriculum is based (available in March 2014).
Session 1

HOW TO LIVE WELL

Eternal Life Begins Now

BEFORE YOU LEAD

For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 1 of the video. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

SESSION OUTLINE

I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   A. Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   B. Question response (3 minutes)

II. Video Teaching (90 minutes for one session format; the conversation between Dallas and John begins at the 44:05 mark)

III. Video Discussion (10-15 minutes)

IV. Closing (3 minutes)

Note: You should be able to complete chapter 1 in either one two-hour block or two one-hour blocks.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to say a word about the overall theme for the next six weeks and ask the group how they feel about taking the time to focus on the topic for this session: how to live well.

You may want to solicit responses from the group concerning the question “What does it mean to live well, to be well off?”

VIDEO TEACHING

Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

VIDEO DISCUSSION

After the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:

1. Dallas says, “When you divorce faith from knowledge, you wind up in the position of trying to get people to do things, not of providing them with a basis on which they can then decide how to live and how to lead their lives together.” How would you explain the difference between faith and knowledge? (Hint: Biblically speaking, to “know” another person always implies intimate interaction.)
2. What do you think it means to pull rather than push someone into discipleship?
3. What is your gospel, your central message? (Hint: Is your gospel built more around an arrangement made or a relationship being lived?)

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. What does Dallas mean when he says, “The test of religious life is life?”
2. What needs to be true in someone’s life for that person to be able to say he or she knows Christ?
3. How does having an intimate and ongoing knowledge of Christ relate to living life with a light burden and easy yoke?

Closing
Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read and reflect on the following passages before the next group meeting.

• Matthew 11:28-30 Easy yoke
• Matthew 28:18-20 The Great Commission
• John 17:3 The only time in the Bible that Jesus defines “eternal life”

Close with prayer. Perhaps you’ll want to lead in a prayer for each member to be willing to experience God’s invitation to live now as his friend and student.

Session 2

Who Are the Experts on Life Transformation?

Before You Lead
For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 2 of the video. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

Session Outline
I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   A. Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   B. Question response (3 minutes)
II. Video Teaching (77 minutes for one session format; audience question-and-answer session with John begins at 46:48)
III. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)
IV. Closing (3 minutes)

Note: You should be able to complete the session in either one two-hour block or two one-hour blocks.

Introduction
Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session’s lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this session: who are the experts on life transformation?

You may want to solicit responses from the group concerning the question “Did you have any experiences with easy-yoke living in the past few days? If yes, please say more.”

Video Teaching
Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

Video Discussion
After the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:

1. Who do you know that is an expert in life transformation? How does one become such a person?
2. What are some of the differences between accepting Jesus as your teacher and accepting him as your savior?
3. What would you most want to be said at your funeral? If all these things are already true about you, wonderful! If some of the statements are not fully true, what have you learned about how to become a genuinely good person?
Who Are the Experts on Life Transformation?

4. How would you describe the difference between the gospel of Jesus and the gospel of minimum entrance requirements? (Hint: Feel free to quote Monty Python.)

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. What is the real test of what a person actually believes?
2. What is the value of true belief?
3. If you were to develop a measure of spiritual maturity so that a scribe or Pharisee would not win, what item you would have on your test?

Closing
Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read and reflect on the following passages before the next group meeting.

- Psalm 1 The two ways
- Mark 1:14-15 The gospel of Jesus
- 1 Corinthians 1:17-31 The shortcomings of human wisdom
- 1 Corinthians 13; 2 Peter 1:1-11; Colossians 3:1-17 What transformed (good) people look like

Close with prayer. Perhaps you'll want to lead in a prayer for each member to be willing to experience God's invitation to live in a conversational and transforming relationship.

Session 3

HOW TO STEP INTO THE KINGDOM AND LIVE THERE

Before You Lead
For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 3 of the video. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

Session Outline
I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   Question response (3 minutes)
II. Video Teaching (78 minutes; the conversation between John and Dallas begins at 40:55)
III. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)
IV. Closing (3 minutes)

Note: You should be able to complete the session in either one two-hour block or two one-hour blocks.

Introduction
Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session’s lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this week: how to step into the kingdom and live there.

You may want to solicit responses from the group concerning the question “What does the phrase, ‘kingdom of God’ mean to you?”

Video Teaching
Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

Video Discussion
After the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:

1. Dallas Willard says that the first step toward living in the kingdom is to study Christ and his gospel of kingdom availability. Given that through Christ the kingdom is a here-and-now reality, how would you describe your part in learning to live in the kingdom now?

2. Dallas suggests “venturing on Christ” and his teaching as the next step into experiencing life in the kingdom—the test of experience. What have been some of your experiences of living more and more moments with God? (Hint: Living in the kingdom is a matter of living with God’s actions in our lives.)
3. Second Corinthians 5:17 states, “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!” What do you think Dallas meant by saying that this is one of the most abused passages in all of Scripture?

4. What is beyond the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees?

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. What does it look like for you to be seeking the kingdom in your work, play and intimate relationships?
2. What is the best thing to do if you discover that seeking the kingdom is not your number-one priority?
3. Dallas has often said, “If you want to go to heaven, go now.” How does that idea relate to living in the kingdom now?

Closing

Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read and reflect on the following passages before the next meeting:

- Ephesians 2:1-10; John 3:1-8 God's part
- Matthew 6:33 Our first priority
- Jeremiah 29:13; 2 Chronicles 15:4, 15; Matthew 13:13-15 Why seeking is required
- John 8:31-32 The path of knowledge for the disciple

Close with prayer. Perhaps you’ll want to lead in a prayer for each member to be willing to personally experience God’s invitation to live all of life as his apprentice.

Session Four

EXPERIENTIAL

KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRINITY

BEFORE YOU LEAD
For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 4 of the video. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

SESSION OUTLINE
I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   - Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   - Question response (3 minutes)
II. Video Teaching (50 minutes; the conversation between John and Dallas starts at the 34:12 mark)
III. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)
IV. Closing (3 minutes)

INTRODUCTION
Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session’s lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this week: experiential knowledge of the Trinity.

You also may want to solicit responses from the group to the question “What difference would it make in how you live if you believe that you are created to live in a continuing, transforming conversation with the Trinity?”

VIDEO TEACHING
Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

VIDEO DISCUSSION
After the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:
1. What do you think life among the members of the Trinity is like? How does that vision challenge you as you live in communities of work, family and friends?
2. John Ortberg stated, “We have been invited into the fellowship of love through the gracious ministry of the Holy Spirit at enormous cost to every member of the Trinity.” What are some of the ways you have found to live in a greater awareness of this reality?
3. On a scale of one to ten, how true is it that you are routinely restful and joyous in serving and ministry?
4. Share some ideas for arranging your life so that you are experiencing deep contentment, joy and confidence in your everyday life with God.

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. How would you describe to someone else what Dallas described as the “practical presence of the Trinity” in a person's life?

2. Read Philippians 2:5-11 (the “Hymn of Christ”). How should people go about imitating Christ in being willing to “empty” themselves (to use Dallas’s translation) of the desire for reputation?

3. What are some practical suggestions for churches (and individuals) for getting beyond separation and competition?

CLOSING
Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read and reflect on the following passages before the next meeting:

- Ephesians 4:1-6 The unity of the Spirit
- John 13:34; 1 John 2:8 A “new command”
- John 14:15-31 What happens when the Trinity comes to live in us
- John 17:21-24 A growing community of love in constant interaction with the Trinity

Close with prayer. Perhaps you'll want to lead in a prayer for each member to be willing to experience God's invitation to know the Trinity as a community of love.

Session Five

Understanding the Person

Including the Invisible Parts

Before You Lead
For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 5 of the video and, if possible, follow along in chapter 5 of the book Living in Christ’s Presence. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

Session Outline
I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   Question response (3 minutes)
II. Video Teaching (65 minutes; the conversation between John and Dallas begins at 34:49)
III. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)
IV. Closing (3 minutes)

Introduction
Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session’s lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this week: understanding the person, including the invisible parts.

You also may want to solicit responses from the group to the question “Of the five things you can do—think, feel, choose, behave and relate—which has been the most helpful to your own spiritual formation?”

Video Teaching
Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

Video Discussion
Following the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:
1. Dallas states, “One of the things that defeats Christian growth is failure to attend to the parts of the person.” He then references the admonition in Romans 12 to present your body as a living sacrifice. What are some ways that you have presented any of the aspects of you (thoughts, feelings, behavior/body, will, relationships) as a living sacrifice?
2. What do you think Dallas meant by saying that experiences of practicing the spiritual disciplines are not the same for everyone?
3. What does it mean to love God with you whole heart? (Hint: To love someone means to desire that person’s good.) What are some things that would be good for God?

4. In terms of habits, what are the spiritual disciplines designed to do?

5. How does a person get to a place of easy, routine obedience?

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions to complete the first topic, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. What does Dallas suggest should be done to help a person who has become frustrated by how difficult it is to change? Can you give an example of what this looks like in your own life?

2. What might happen if you become stuck on fixing or changing a behavior?

3. What are the roles of grace and the Trinity in the practice of a spiritual discipline?

CLOSING

Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read the following passages before the next group meeting:

- Mark 7:20-23 Where human failure and misery come from
- Mark 12:29-31 The Great Commandment—love of God and neighbor
- Psalm 19 Restoring the soul

Close with prayer. Perhaps you’ll want to lead in a prayer for the group to celebrate the gifts brought by each component of our personhood.

Session Six

The Importance of Christian Disciplines

Before You Lead
For the best experience in leading your small group, it’s very important to preview session 6 of the video and, if possible, follow along in chapter 6 of the book Living in Christ’s Presence. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

Session Outline
1. Introduction (4 minutes)
   Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   Question response (3 minutes)
2. Video Teaching (77 minutes; the conversation between John and Dallas starts at 56:48) (Note: You may want to view part of John’s talk during your next session to balance viewing time.)
3. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)
4. Closing (3 minutes)

Introduction
Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session’s lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this week: the importance of Christian disciplines.

You also may want to solicit responses from the group to the question “What is the current role of Christian disciplines in your life?”

Video Teaching
Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

Video Discussion
After the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:

1. After listening to John Ortberg’s reading of Colossians 3:1-14 and 2 Peter 1-11, are there any practices you have found to be helpful for making these verses a reality in your life?
2. When it comes to authentic Christian spiritual formation, how would you explain the difference between training and trying?
3. If any activity has the potential to be a spiritual discipline for a person (such as purposefully driving in the slow lane), what are some activities that could become a spiritual discipline in your life? Is the activity a discipline of abstinence or engagement?
The Importance of Christian Disciplines

Note: If your group has decided to split the material into two sessions, ask the following questions after viewing the conversation between Dallas and John.

1. What is your plan for becoming more aware of other disciples (apprentices to Jesus) in your area? How can you encourage each other in practical ways?

2. If discipleship is, as Dietrich Bonhoeffer described, simply the reception of grace, how can a spiritual discipline play a role in receiving grace?

3. What is bothering you?

Closing
Before wrapping up, encourage the participants to read the following passages before the next group meeting:

- Colossians 3:1-14; 2 Peter 1:1-11
  Exercising responsibility for who we become
- 1 Corinthians 9:24
  Training versus trying
- Galatians 5:22-25
  Spiritual disciplines and the fruit of the Spirit

Close with prayer. Perhaps you'll want to lead in a prayer for each member to be willing to find ways of arranging life to form new life-giving habits.

Session Seven

Blessing

Before You Lead

For the best experience in leading your small group, it's very important to preview session 7 of the video. Familiarize yourself with the session outline and gather the necessary materials.

Session Outline

I. Introduction (4 minutes)
   - Welcome and opening prayer (1 minute)
   - Question response (3 minutes)

II. Video Teaching (36 minutes; present this recording in one session; Dallas's talk is the first 26 minutes of a total of 36)

III. Video Discussion (12-15 minutes)

IV. Closing (3 minutes)

Introduction

Welcome participants to the study, and briefly pray if you would like. You may want to see if anyone has a question from the last session's lesson and reflections, or you may want to say a word about the overall theme for this week: blessing.

You also may want to solicit responses from the group to the following: “Describe a time when you have received a blessing from another person that had a healing effect on your soul.”

Video Teaching

Show the video segment for this session. Participants may wish to use a notepad and pen or pencil for taking notes.

Video Discussion

Following the video presentation, explore the topic further by allowing the group to consider the following questions:

1. How would you explain the difference between a blessing and a curse?
2. What do you mean when you say to another person, “God bless you.”
3. Have you ever had the sense of God looking right at you?
Blessing

Closing
Encourage the participants to pair into groups of two and to bless each other with the Aaronic blessing:

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. (Numbers 6:25-26 NRSV)

Close with prayer. Perhaps you'll want to lead in a slow reading of Dallas's paraphrasing of the Lord's Prayer:

Dear Father always near us,
may your name be treasured and loved,
may your rule be completed in us,
may your will be done here on earth in just the way it is done in heaven.
Give us today the things we need today,
and forgive us our sins and impositions on you
as we are forgiving all who in any way offend us.
Please don't put us through trials,
but deliver us from everything bad.
Because you are the one in charge,
and you have all the power,
and the glory too is all yours—forever.
Which is just the way we want it!
